Decatur's Leading One-Price Clothiers.

TO - COMPETE - IN - PRICE IS ONE THING.

But to compete at the same time in both price and quality another thing. We do not pretend that other shoe dealers here may not be able to quote prices as low as we do; but we do maintain that we know it is true that other dealers here cannot at the same time compete in both quality and price.

WE SELL GOOD SHOES

For the price they will charge you for shoddy. "The Public is not a Fool." It is not the price alone which sells goods, but it is the price and quality together which determines the matter. For an illustration we may say that other dealers here charge $2 for a man's buff shoe. We will give you a

GENUINE CALF SHOE

For the same figure. We sell you men's calf congress shoes at $2. Other dealers charge you $3 for the same grade of shoes.

We sell ladies' dongola hand-welt shoes at $2.50

They are in opera and common sense lasts. The shoes can't be bought to-day for the money by any jobber.

We have lots of ladies' dongola shoes at $1.25. They are all solid, are nice styles, are worth $2 of anybody's money.

Men's calf congress hand sewed shoes at $2.50. No jobber in the country can buy them to-day at the price. We have no end of just such bargains for you. Come and get them. Save money. That's one way to make it.

NEW BOOKS. A Meeting at Springfield of Considerable Importance. Rev. M. D. Hawes went to Springfield yesterday afternoon to attend the annual meeting of presiding elders of the Illinois conference of the Methodist church. They will be in session till to-night. The special object of the meeting is the apportionment of the assessment on this conference among the different districts. The money to be raised is for benevolent purposes, for salary and expenses of the bishop, and for the superannuated list. For the missionary work of the Methodist church of the world $1,300,000 will be raised this year, of that sum about $32,000 will be raised by the Illinois conference, which is only one of the four conferences in this state. Besides the $32,000 to be furnished by this conference for missionary purposes, the assessment will include $4,350 for freedom, $5,000 for church extension, $6 00 each for education, Sunday school and tract distribution. The assessment on the Decatur district will be about $3,400 for benevolent purposes. The elders who will be present at the meeting are W. H. Webster, Danville; T. A. Barker, Champaign; J. T. Orr, Mattoon; M. D. Hawes, Decatur; George Stevens, Bloomington; W. N. McElroy, Springfield; W. D. Best, Jacksonville; M. W. Everhart, West Jacksonville, and S. H. Whitlock, Quincy.

STRAY SCRAPS. Nellie McHenry in "Chain Lightning" at the Grand Opera House to-night. Barry & Fay will present "McKenna's Flirtations" at the Grand Theatre to-night. Samuel Moran, of Decatur, has been granted an increase of pension and Lewis Rankin a release. Three ladies will go to Marion to-day on bicycles. They are Mrs. O. Ewing, Mrs. S. Long and Miss Sims. William Dunn and Miss Katie Welch will be married at St. Patrick's Catholic church this morning at 8 o'clock.

The price of coal has been raised. It has been $1.85 a ton where two tons were taken at once. Now the price is $2 straight. Fred Wilson, William C. Field, Goldfried Goerki and Frank Riedel were naturalized as American citizens yesterday afternoon. The coal miners at Springfield who have been on a strike this week, will probably win their point, which is a demand for more wages.

The officers of the Decatur Ministerial association are: Rev. G. E. Heldel, president; Rev. J. A. P. King, vice president; and Rev. W. B. Allen, secretary. The publishers of "The Riverboats" write Dr. Bunstead that they are still unable to supply the demand around Philadelphia, as Wasmaker is making a run on the book. All the rigs in the livery stables were out yesterday afternoon hauling voters to the polls. A great many fellows took the annual carriage ride that lightens up their lives.

A hunting party left for West Plains, Mo. yesterday, to be gone two or three weeks. They were R. H. Hill, Jerome Edwards, Noah Jacobs, Jerry Toppin, John Jennings and J. F. Faries. All the city policemen were at work yesterday on account of the election. The night force have consequently worked two nights and one day without rest, and are pretty well used up by this morning.

Rev. James G. Jeffers returned yesterday to his home in Decatur from his pastoral tour on the Hammond circuit, having closed on Sunday night a successful and interesting meeting of three weeks duration. Fifteen conversions are the result. The Logan boarding house, at the corner of Water and North streets, is getting a new coat of paint. It now looks something like it did in the old days, when as the residence of K. H. Roby, it was one of the handsomest houses in the city.

There never was a finer day for an election. Both parties and the prohibitionists agreed on that much at least. The weather clerk did a great deal yesterday to make election popular with the politicians and party workers of this part of the country at least. Harry Pitts, who was tried at the last term of court for horse stealing, on whose case the jury disagreed, is still in jail. His bail was reduced to $800 from $1,000, and Indianapolis parties agreed to furnish that amount, but it has not as yet materialized. Attorney Bailey was in the city a few days ago from Indianapolis, but Attorney Gray was out of the city, and so they could not meet to make the arrangements. It is yet uncertain whether or not the case will ever again come to trial.

Frank Wacaser, of Hammond, who has twice been tried for the murder of John King on May 17, 1888, has been granted a new trial. The second trial was held at Champaign this spring and a verdict sentencing Frank to 25 years in the penitentiary was returned. He has already served several months of the time. His father, A. Wacaser, has not given up trying for a new trial, however, and was rewarded for his perseverance by the decision of the supreme court, announced a day or two ago. Wacaser will now be returned to Champaign for another hearing.

A New Plan. Inasmuch as all talk yesterday was about the election and many were regretting that friends had necessarily lost their votes by being out of the city either as railroad men or travelers, there were some ingenious methods proposed for the correction of that. The plan was that persons who were necessarily out of the city should be allowed to go before the county judge, make oath about their necessity of absence and that they were entitled to a vote, and so receive certificates that would entitle them to vote at any polling place in the state, on state officers, or at any place in the district on congressional. The idea might be elaborated to include interstate privileges on national elections, and eventually to include all the stop over and baggage privileges of a 5,000 mile ticket good on all railroads.

Funerals Yesterday. The funeral of E. A. White, who died east of Forsyth Monday morning, occurred yesterday. He was 75 years of age. Charles Leroy Gleason was buried yesterday from the house of his parents at 1416 East Marietta street. He died of diphtheria Monday morning, at the age of four years. Shut Down. Shellabarger's mill was shut down yesterday for a couple of days. Changes in the machinery are being made. The changes are the improvements, of course, that are constantly being introduced in that establishment.

Putting in Windows. Workmen were busy yesterday putting in the stained glass windows of the new Congregational church. They are very handsome, and the effect will be to make the interior attractive and ornate.

W. F. Dennis, Sr., was at Maria yesterday on business. Sam Kahn went to Atwood yesterday to attend a wedding. Hugh Foutch, of New Berlin, Ill., is visiting Decatur friends. Rev. and Mrs. Hiram Buck went to Springfield yesterday. Frank Higgins, of East St. Louis, is visiting relatives in Decatur. Mr. and Mrs. John Pistorious, Jr., of Boody, were visitors yesterday to Decatur. Prof. James Thomas was called to Nashville, Ind., Sunday night, by the illness of his sister. Mrs. Emma Wilson, of Springfield, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. G. Jefferson, on North Water street. William Gold and wife, of Clinton, were in Decatur yesterday. Mr. Gold is train dispatcher at Clinton. H. C. Anthony came from Danville yesterday. His wife and child will return to Decatur next Saturday. Davis May and N. S. Cook expect to leave this morning for Missouri to join the fishing party already there. Rev. M. L. Wagner will go to Newberry, Ind., to-day to attend the conference and assist in dedicating a new church. Springfield Register: Evangelist W. F. Blechett left for Decatur, where he will engage in a revival about two weeks. Mrs. S. J. Bumstead and Mrs. George Jenkins went to Danville for a day's visit yesterday and returned last night. Mrs. Annie Bateholder left last night for Toronto, Ont., where she will remain for some time with her husband who is there studying veterinary surgery.

Mrs. T. L. Thomas and daughter and Charles Fitzsimmons, of Adamsstown, Md., are the guests of their relatives, the Stevens brothers, at 590 North Church street. Mrs. F. W. Vaughn and Mrs. Charles Frantz, mother and sister of Hugh Vaughn, arrived in the city yesterday from Bethany to visit him at his home on Bradford street.

Barry & Fay. The announcement that those popular comedians, Barry & Fay, are to appear at the Grand to-morrow night in their clever performance of "McKenna's Flirtation," which made such a hit here some three seasons ago, will cause a broad smile of anticipation. "McKenna's Flirtation" is said to have undergone numerous changes. New songs and dances and bright, catchy music, all of which is said to have been composed and arranged especially for Barry & Fay, have been introduced and will be rendered by a company which is said to have been carefully selected for this production, and includes pretty girls, clever comedians and good singers and dancers.

Missed the Depot. Yesterday afternoon a stranger in Decatur came wandering along the railroad track from the east. When he reached North Main street his eyes fell on the handsome new stone coal office of Ed Martin and his face took on a look of relief. Going inside he asked the fare to Chicago. "Why," explained the clerk, "we sell coal here, not railroad tickets." "Is that so," sighed the stranger, "I've been along the track here from the coal shaft to this place, and this is the first place I've seen that looked me like a depot." He had missed the old rattle trap maintained by the Central at the junction. It was no wonder, however.

Trusted. Dr. H. D. Hill was called yesterday to see a man named Hilton, who lives near Mattes' brick yard. He was badly bruised about the back and could hardly move. He was suffering intense agony. The doctor did what he could to relieve the man's pain. He said he was in a saloon on South Franklin street Monday night, when some one knocked him down and kicked him in the back. He got home only with the greatest difficulty.

Stopped. The stone cutters and stone layers at work on St. John's new church have stopped work. The cause of delay is getting stone. Enough to finish the work is ordered in ample time to get it here, but there has been delay in getting it shipped. The old men went to work yesterday on the Presbyterian church. They will work there until stone for St. John's church comes, and then they will go back to that. The day is not expected to last over a few days.

The manufacturers of "THERPURE" Baking Powder in making their bow to the public desire to frankly state a few important facts: First—This powder has been adopted and endorsed by the Wholesale Grocers' National association as the best pure cream of tartar Baking Powder made. Second—We make no extravagant claims or assertions; the quality of the powder is expressed by the name. Third—We have no words of condemnation for other powders; there are some powders in the market which are very good, there are far more that are poisonous, we know ours to be pure and of the highest class. RILEY POET.

EDITORS REVIEW:

Gentlemen—I sent you a poem last week and asked you to publish it in your paper. You declined and returned it to me with the crushing reply that I was no poet, and that you could "turn out better poetry out of a sausage machine." Now, I won't be crushed, and I propose to show up your attempts to throttle budding genius. Publish this card and the following poem in your advertising columns and charge me your full advertising rates.

Yours,

JAMES METCALPH RILEY.

The Poem

I stood upon the ocean's sandy beach,
And with a reed I wrote upon the sand these words:
"Agnes, I love thee."
But the winds came and the waves rolled mountains high,
And blotted out the fair impression.
Cruel waves, treacherous sand, fragile reed;
No longer will I trust thee;
But from the highest mountain peak I'll pluck the tallest pine,
And, dipped in the crater of Vesuvius, with it I will write
Upon the high and burnished heavens these tender words:
"Bartholomew is holding the biggest low price sale of Dinner Sets ever held in the city.
He is now offering Dinner Sets and Chamber Sets so low their cheapness would almost take your breath away."
And I would like to see any dog-gone wave wash that out.
